

P series Firmware Release 1.1.5

The following new features are included in this release:

- Enhanced Autotest configuration without I/O module
- Fixes an error in the ADC reference measurement

P series Firmware Release 1.1.4

The following new features are included in this release:

- Fixes an error during the pre-boost procedures

P series Firmware Release 1.1.3

The following new features are included in this release:

- Fixes an error in the fault current measurement
- Fixes an error during the start-up

P series Firmware Release 1.1.2

The following new features are included in this release:

- Compatibility with MaxView the monitoring solution for private PV power plants
- Integration of new country settings
- Monitoring of external surge protection device
- Support for local software update over MaxTalk 2.4.1